when are we accountable for our actions when we know the difference between right and wrong when we are free enough to act upon that knowledge bit struggles when she faces her first chance to decide for herself between what is right and what she wants at the same time jack fights to unify the old crew of the lenore with the new men and women of the caprice all while under the looming deadline of a population growing without a place to settle if bit can stay out of trouble and if jack can build a team they will soon race toward distant stars in search of a new home for the ever growing human race

Canary Fever

canary fever is a collection of reviews about the most significant literatures of the twenty first century science fiction fantasy and horror the literatures clute argues should be recognized as the central modes of fantastika in our times the title refers to the canary in the coal mine who whiffs gas and dies to save miners reviewers of fantastika can find themselves in a similar position though words can only hurt us

The Dreaming Void

reviewers exhaust superlatives when it comes to the science fiction of peter f hamilton his complex and engaging novels which span thousands of years and light years are as intellectually stimulating as they are emotionally fulfilling now with the dreaming void the first volume in a trilogy set in the same far future as his acclaimed commonwealth saga hamilton has created his most ambitious and gripping space epic yet the year is 3589 fifteen hundred years after commonwealth forces barely staved off human extinction in a war against the alien prime now an even greater danger has surfaced a threat to the existence of the universe itself at the very heart of the galaxy is the void a self contained microuniverse that cannot be breached cannot be destroyed and cannot be stopped as it steadily expands in all directions consuming everything in its path planets stars civilizations the void has existed for untold millions of years even the oldest and most technologically advanced of the galaxy s sentient races the raiel do not know its origin its makers or its purpose but then inigo an astrophysicist studying the void begins dreaming of human beings who live within it inigo s dreams reveal a world in which thoughts become actions and dreams become reality inside the void inigo sees paradise thanks to the gaiafield a neural entanglement wired into most humans inigo s dreams are shared by hundreds of millions and a religion the living dream is born with inigo as its prophet but then he vanishes suddenly there is a new wave of dreams dreams broadcast by an unknown second dreamer serve as the inspiration for a massive pilgrimage into the void but there is a chance that by attempting to enter the void the pilgrims will trigger a catastrophic expansion an accelerated devourment phase that will swallow up thousands of worlds and thus begins a desperate race to find inigo and the mysterious second dreamer some seek to prevent the pilgrimage others to speed its progress while within the void a supreme entity has turned its gaze for the first time outward bonus this edition includes an excerpt from peter f hamilton s the temporal void

Staging of Classical Drama around 2000

classical drama on the modern stage as a cultural and political phenomenon is scholarly trailed since the 1950s and 60s and intensified in the last third of the twentieth century the evidence is being extensively documented pioneered by walton 1987 and mcdonald 1992 and subsequently developed by collaborative research projects which include published databases it is clear from the work of these projects that performance of classical drama is a major feature in all types of theatre avant garde and experimental student international and fringe epic and classical commercial popular and canonical this means that it is closely intertwined with the politics of locale environment and geography as well as of language translation and culture each of the essays has a specialised contribution to make however the total impact of the whole section will be even greater than the sum of the parts because the authors not only intersect in their discussions of common concerns in modern performance of ancient drama but also provide case studies that will add to the knowledge base and critical acumen of everyone working in the field set in the small fishing village of bexham this follows the fortunes of the characters we met in the chestnut tree and the wind off the sea million copy and sunday times bestselling author charlotte bingham has penned a novel so engaging and captivating you won t be able to put it down fans of louise douglas dinah jefferies and kristin hannah will not be disappointed charlotte bingham portrays the characters with great sympathy and sets them firmly in the sixties there is tragedy humour and warmth if you like a good realistic story you will enjoy this historical novels review i couldn t wait to go to bed each night to continue reading the story reader review comfortable and stylish reader review just wonderful reader review i found i couldn't put it down fantastic reader review war is long over but new battles are just beginning 1962 times feel bleak again the threat of atomic warfare feels real and for many life seems all the more bewildering as they struggle to understand the new generation of the sixties a generation for whom they made so many wartime sacrifices for whom they had such high hopes no sooner has the threat of nuclear war seemed to have passed than judy mathilda and rusty are facing a new personal crisis brought about by their teenage children still grieving for his lost wife waldo astley tries his best to help his three friends only to find himself falling in love with one of them meanwhile the younger generation have their own problems all of which involve their families that all the generations find themselves once more united in a battle this time to save the village they love is both an irony and finally a saving grace once more an enemy has to be defeated once more they must arm themselves but this time for a war of a very different kind it is a hundred millennia after iron gods the spin is nearing the end of its life its inhabitants are divided between those who live unknowingly in the relative paradise of one of hundreds of virtual realities vrealities and those who scrape a living in what remains of the real world the massive servers needed to maintain the vrealities are draining the resources of the spin and an escalating desperate and seemingly futile war has begun between those who tend the servers and those who believe they should be shut down killing millions but one amongst these unwitting combatants will discover the real nature of the vrealities and his role in their fate from a remote star system a being has been observing the spin for several lifetimes he is skarbo the horologist and he is about to die for the very last time he has come to accept that he will never visit the object of his studies but is coerced into making one last journey his final destination lies across a war torn galaxy and there he will learn of the spin's past and its astonishing future returning to the extraordinarily envisioned artificial planetary cluster called the spin stone
