dishonesty inspires more euphemisms than copulation or defecation this helps desensitize us to its implications in the post truth era we don't just have truth and lies but a third category of ambiguous statements that are not exactly the truth but fall just short of a lie enhanced truth it might be called neo truth soft truth faux truth truth lite deception has become the modern way of life where once the boundary line between truth and lies was clear and distinct it is no longer so in the post truth era deceiving others has become a challenge a game a habit high profile dissemblers compete for news coverage from journalists like jayson blair and professors like joseph ellis to politicians of all stripes executives and creative accountants research suggests that the average american tells multiple lies on a daily basis often for no good reason not a finger wagging scolding the post truth era is a combination of ralph keyes's investigative journalism and solid science the result is a spirited exploration of why we lie about practically everything and the consequences such casual dishonesty has on society american society has become permeated from top to bottom by deception its consequences for the nature of public discourse media business literature academia and politics are profound with dry humor passionate fervor and deep understanding ralph keyes takes us on a tour of a world where truth and honesty are no longer absolutes but mutable fluid concepts anti intellectualism to anti rationalism to post truth era the challenges for higher education argues that emergence of the post truth world is evidence that anti intellectualism long recognized as a characteristic of american culture has morphed into anti rationalism as a surging force in american society that threatens our collective commitment to rationality a post truth world however is not an immutable condition and cannot be accepted as the new norm the author argues that american higher education take responsibility for combating anti rationalism by promoting the development of student's personal attributes that constitute a rational mind set and rationalist identity such that they hold themselves accountable for commitments to seeking truth and the value of critical thought and reasoned discourse as defining element of their way of being in the world scholarship exists across many disciplines regarding anti intellectualism and anti rationalism in american society and the personal attributes that together constitute a rational mind set including an evaluativist personal epistemology open mindedness and conscientiousness and a rationalist identity the author brings the perspective of a psychologist to the analysis and synthesis of this scholarship and the implications for educational practices that are effective in promoting the development of student's rational mind set and rationalist identity necessary to combat anti rationalism and the post truth world woman and some of the resolute untruths from donald trump s explosive presidential campaign this is the quintessential guide to dishonesty from our leaders and the often pernicious relationship between parliament and the media but this book is also so much more it explains how in the space of a lifetime we have gone from the implicit assumption that our rulers have our best interests at heart to assuming the worst even when in the majority of cases politicians are actually doing their best the new edition of post truth fake news and democracy offers an updated overview and critical discussion of contemporary discourses around truth misinformation and democracy while also mapping cutting edge scholarship through in depth analyses of news articles commentaries academic publications policy briefs and political speeches the book engages with the underlying normative ideas that shape how fake news is being addressed across the globe doing so it provides an innovative critical contribution to contemporary debates on democracy post truth and politics three new chapters chapter 2 provides an outline of the scholarly field of research into fake news chapter 5 examines how issues of fake news and mis information have become intertwined with contemporary crisis events and chapter 9 presents democratic alternatives to post truth solutionism a new foreword by professor sarah banet weiser fully updated examples and studies from contemporary events including the covid 19 pandemic the united states capitol attack and the russian invasion of ukraine extended discussions on the causes of democratic decline currently proposed solutions to fake news and democratic alternatives to our current predicament interesting informative and well documented post truth fake news and democracy continues its commitment to understand and engage with the current state and future of democracy are you prepared to address the most challenging cultural issues of your time mass media and technology are exploding popular entertainment relentlessly pushes the envelope biomedicine stretches ethical boundaries political issues shift with the polls the world in which you live is in the midst of a major cultural transformation one leading to a widespread lack of faith an increase in moral relativism and a rejection of absolute truth how are we to remain faithful followers of christ as we live in this ever shifting culture how should we think about and respond to the crucial moral questions of our day how can we stand up for the truth in culture shift dr r albert mohler one of today s leading christian thinkers and spokespersons addresses these tough topics clearly biblically and passionately christian faith and politics the supreme court and religion the truth about terrorism christian parents and public schools the abortion debate christian response to global tragedies and many more here is trustworthy help for developing a comprehensive christian worldview it s timely information powerfully connected to timeless truth that will equip you to stand strong and speak out in an era shaped by misinformation conspiracy theories and anti science movements science and technology studies science technology and society sts provides a lighthouse of insight and interdisciplinary research this volume science technology and society for a post truth age comparative dialogues on reflexivity embarks on a transformative journey through the interdependencies of science technology and society offering vital perspectives and new insights on these challenging topics this book written by scholars in the field reshapes post truth discourse through sts and positions sts as a central force in addressing the post truth crisis it presents a compelling contribution that anchors sts at the heart of contemporary debates about truth and knowledge science technology and society for a post truth age comparative dialogues on reflexivity is a contemporary and thought provoking exploration of the evolving relationship between knowledge truth and society it makes the case that sts is a catalyst for reshaping our understanding of truth in an age characterised by scepticism and uncertainty pedagogies of post truth explores the national and international political developments in what has been called a post truth society specifically in which conservative groups target media outlets claiming fabrication of news and that the veracity of evidence based reporting should be questioned truth has been reduced to the validation of opinions instead of the presentation of scientific facts this collection responds to these issues by initiating a scholarly dialogue about teaching in the era of post truth in which research based findings that do not align with political viewpoints are judged criticized and often described as fake contributors evaluate the pedagogical challenges of post truth discourse and how post truth messages negatively affect instructors and students by highlighting ways instructors and students can resist the hegemony of post truth this book creates a dialogue among scholars illustrates the challenges and offers pedagogical techniques to discuss post truth the role of the educator the role of media and the role of other story makers of our society in this book david block draws on analytical techniques from critical discourse studies to critically investigate truth truths the propagation of ignorance and post truth focusing on corrupt discourses and agnotology he explores the role of anti intellectualism emotion and social media in the cultural creation legitimisation and dissemination of ignorance while encompassing analysis of discourses on donald trump brexit climate change and the alt right block furthers our understanding of this global phenomena by providing a revealing analysis of political communications relating to corruption scandals involving the spanish conservative party through an innovative theoretical framework that combines critical discourse and discourse historical approaches with nuanced political analysis he uncovers the rhetorical means by which esoteric truths and misleading narratives about corruption are created and demonstrates how they become in their turn corrupt discourses this original work offers fresh insights for scholars of discourse analysis sociolinguistics politics cultural and communication studies and will also appeal to general readers with an interest in political communication and spanish politics this book undertakes the theme of othering as a broad set of practices and discourses it includes as many perspectives as possible while simultaneously providing a focused environment for discussions on how otherization is built across media genres and policy making through cultural and political articulations the book includes a set of chapters that investigate how and to what end others are manufactured and how they are anchored in the collective memory through an analysis of various media such as film news media and social media it sheds light on the institutional political social and economic forces that form and transform the discourses and practices of othering this proceeding is an effort from various academics and practitioners in the midst of modern society to find the meaning and re imagine theology religion culture and humanities studies for public life from discussions on how religion can reshape our world to become a better world to re imagining the foundation of human life that believes in god in the midst of local culture and an increasingly advanced and modern world even looking back at the history of women evangelization and places of worship as a means for humans to find god in the world in the end all of these writings are a form of academic reflection of the authors who seek to find god in the midst of today s world over the last few years social media has expanded to become a key platform for news dissemination and circulation and a key originator and propogator of fake news nations governments organisations and societies are now coming to terms with the unpredictable and debilitating consequences of fake news the propagation of news containing falsehoods has been linked to an increase in measles cases surges in youth crimes the spread of pseudo science compromised national security and more some even perceive it as a global threat to democratic systems around the world in this book the authors examine factors influencing the spread of fake news and suggest ways to combat it by exploring the key elements which enable and facilitate this phenomenon this volume addresses the evolution of the visual in digital communities offering a multidisciplinary discussion of the ways in which images are circulated in digital communities the meanings that are attached to them and the implications they have for notions of identity memory gender cultural belonging and political action contributors focus on the political efficacy of the image in digital communities as well as the representation of the digital self in order to offer a fresh perspective on the role of digital images in the creation and promotion of new forms of resistance agency and identity within visual cultures hate speech and human rights democracies need to understand these terms to properly adapt their legal frameworks regulation of hate speech exposes underlining and sometimes invisible societal values such as security and public order equality and non discrimination human dignity and other democratic vital interests the spread of hatred and hate speech has intensified in many corners of the world over the last decade and its regulation presents a conundrum for many democracies this book presents a three prong theory describing three different but complementary models of hate speech regulation which allows stakeholders to better address this phenomenon it examines international and national legal frameworks and related case law as well as pertinent scholarly literature review to highlight this development after a period of an absence of free speech during communism post communist democracies have sought to build a framework for the exercise of free speech while protecting public goods such as liberty equality and human dignity the three prong theory is applied to identify public goods and values underlining the regulation of hate speech in the czech republic and slovakia two countries that share a political sociological and legal history as an example of the differing approaches to hate speech regulation in post communist societies due to divergent social values despite identical legal frameworks this book will be of great interest to scholars of human rights law lawyers judges government ngos media and anyone who would like to understand values that underpin hate speech regulations which reflect values that society cherishes the most the encyclopedia of deception examines lying from multiple perspectives drawn from the disciplines of social psychology sociology history business political science cultural academicians practitioners and students while research evidence shows the negative impact of ability grouping on children this book suggests that the reason the practice is still embraced is the unspoken allegiance to the values of empire that governments schools and many parents still uphold promoting competition and hierarchies over and above ethical principles on the education of society s most vulnerable our children the practice which happens across social class humiliates children deemed less academically able by rounding them up in front and in opposition to their better intellectual peers wielding knowledge as a weapon of humiliation warps children's relationship to organized forms of knowledge making them antagonistic or indifferent towards it this book responds to michael young's the rise of the meritocracy by focusing on the plight of those who are educationally placed in opposition to the intellectual elites the bottom set citizen rich or poor and ready to vote this book will appeal to anyone concerned with democracy and children's rights in education including the rich on whom i shine the light of deficit for a change thus donald trump and nigel Farage exemplify the bottom set citizen in all his facilitated glory other more vulnerable bscs are not as lucky in the burgeoning field of ecolinguistics little attention has been given to the ways in which english language teaching is and has become implicated in global ecological crises this book begins a dialogue about the opportunities and responsibilities presented to the tesol field to re-orient professional practice in ways that drive cultural change and engender alternate language practices and metaphors covering a diverse range of topics including anthropogenic climate change habitat loss food insecurity and mass migration chapters argue that such crises require not only technological innovation but also cultural changes in how human beings relate to each other and their environment arguing that it is incumbent upon the field of english language teaching to reckon with such cultural changes in how and what we teach tesol and sustainability addresses the ways in which discourses such as eco pedagogy the critique of neo liberalism non western philosophy and post humanist thought can and must inform how and what is taught in esl and efl classrooms the beach has always been a safe place for me where the concerns of life all but disappear one late afternoon i was walking directly into the sun i barely noticed its final descent toward the horizon as i glanced back i caught my shadow it seemed so big my heart was imprisoned by an imperfect replica an emotional stalker seen only as i turned away from the sun's radiance it was then i realized when i walk facing the light i will see no shadow only a life lived out from the shadow will experience the grandeur of god the accuser's maligning voice will be stilled that day i came to grasp that the shadow of a person's past is not how god sees any of his children dr effler writes with clarity biblical expertise papers submitted there were 80 papers were accepted successfully for publication based on their area of interest relevance research by applying multidisciplinary this book presents detailed accounts of policymaking in contemporary risk communication specifically it expands on the understanding of the policy decision making process where there is little or no evidential base and where multiple interpretations power dynamics and values shape the interpretation of public health risk issues the book argues that public health risk communication is a process embedded within multiple dimensions of power and set out practical way forward for public health risk communication the twenty first century consists of an ever evolving diverse population multiculturally internationally racially and sexually whose ideas and beliefs are as diverse as the population itself this has caused the church to face challenges she has never faced before there was a time when christians were a majority in this country and were free to speak about jesus prayer or sin without fearing repercussions however the twenty first century has ushered in a paradigm shift toward something called un christian and tolerance culture this new pluralistic culture is one where everything is tolerated accepted with one exception christianity church attendance is declining and fewer people understand scripture or know anything about jesus therefore their belief systems do not align with scripture church leaders must step out of the church bubble face today s world and plan how they will meet these challenges in this book the author discusses the following twelve major challenges confronting twenty first century church leaders as well as some strategies for meeting these challenges and reversing negativity un christian phenomenon blending the generational groups religious pluralism vs exclusivism open theism vs classical theism gender neutral bible controversy egalitarianism vs complementarianism lgbtq conversation postmodernism and religion futurism vs preterism biblical illiteracy in the church the need for racial reconciliation and continual disintegration of american families in 2015 the united nations set out an ambitious plan under un resolution 70 1 to prioritize seventeen separate goals over a fifteen year period to promote health life equality and the environment the sustainable development goals include ending poverty and hunger reducing inequality promoting good health and well being quality education gender equality clean water and sanitation affordable and clean energy decent work and economic growth industry innovation and infrastructure sustainable cities and communities responsible consumption and production climate action life under water life on land peace justice and strong institutions and developing partnerships to achieve these goals this book examines the way in which sgd initiatives have been disseminated by mainstream media in government discourse and by ngo s charitable organisations and campaign groups it questions to what extent sustainability narratives are being supported and how they are represented how saving the environment can be made pertinent to someone who has no access to clean food or running water and why local initiatives in which indigenous populations are making a real difference are overshadowed by multinationals whose attempts to rectify the damage their goods have done gains more credible reportage contributors mariana abreau rhys davis jenifer ere shiv ganesh steven graham ben harbisher easier than ever before to share just about everything pictures ideas even the ups and downs of your morning errand run yet all our talking doesn t seem to be connecting us the way it promised to that s because we don t need to talk more we need to talk better redeeming how we talk explores what the bible has to say about that central aspect of life and relationships conversation the scriptures show us that words have remarkable power to create to bless to encourage to forgive imagine how we as christians could spark change in our families churches and communities if we learned to use words like jesus did by weaving together theology history and philosophy ken wytsma and a j swoboda help us reclaim the holiness of human speech and the relevance of meaningful conversation in our culture today every church every organization has experienced them betrayal deception grumbling envy exclusion they make life together difficult and prevent congregations from developing the skills virtues and practices they need to nurture sturdy life giving communities in living into community christine pohl explores four specific christian practices gratitude promise keeping truth telling and hospitality that can counteract those destructive forces and help churches and individuals build and sustain vibrant communities drawing on a wealth of personal and professional experience and interacting with the biblical historical and moral traditions pohl thoughtfully discusses each practice including its possible complications and deformations and points to how these essential practices can be better cultivated within communities and families within the field of political philosophy the role of states governments and institutions has dominated research this has led to a dearth of literature that examines what individuals e g voters lobbyists and politicians ought or ought not to do ethics in politics the rights and obligations of individual political agents meets this need providing a timely discussion of normative questions concerning political agents and the systems in which they act the book contains eighteen original chapters by leading scholars which cover a range of topics including irrational voting bribery partisanship and political lying ethics in politics is a unique and accessible resource for students researchers and all interested readers and sheds light on important but underexplored issues in ethics and political philosophy public value theory has advanced over the past 30 years but there is a need to extend its boundary outwards into new contexts and update its discourse to reflect new social challenges we are now trying to create value in a globalized world with supranational entities with new international alliances and institutions in a frightening post truth era how can public managers grapple with these emerging realities this book seeks to provide answers to such public value questions by applying powerful budgeting perspectives using case studies of independent budget offices key fiscal instruments and leading public value frameworks this book stands out in its use of budgetary lenses to answer pertinent questions about the multidimensional processes of value creation by and for a wider society pushing the debate on public value forward and taking it onto the global stage the book asks whether public value and other public administration theories are applicable beyond the traditional context of the pro globalization western liberal democracies in which they were conceived it does this by exploring the realms of developing countries supranational entities and post communist societies among others finally it presents these explorations in light of very recent sociopolitical trends and phenomena including the growth of civil society the global financial crisis the illiberal democracy and the post truth era tailored to an audience comprising public administration scholars students of government budget practitioners and social scientists interested in contemporary problems of values in society this book helps to advance public administration thought by extending public value theory into new contexts and relating it to the growing global challenges of public life african philosophy under the specific conditions of a colonial and postcolonial world is at least since the 20th century if not even earlier inherently intercultural the aim and target of the volume is to reveal interrogate and analyse the intercultural dimension in african philosophy and to critically interrogate the project of an intercultural philosophy from an african perspective this volume is the first publication that explicitly discusses african philosophy as a challenge to the project of intercultural philosophy in architecture in cinema more than 40 architects writers thinkers and academicians examine the magnificent works of cinema that contribute to the art of architecture and bring them to the attention of the architectural community the contributors have compiled essays on fifty masterpieces of classic and contemporary cinema including films such as the cabinet of dr caligari ben hurr the lord of the rings trilogy nomadland and more the book aims to stimulate the imagination of readers and offer approaches to understanding fantasy sociological concepts ecological problems and political ideas the contributors also focus on the elements of creativity such as utopian or dystopian themes aesthetics and artistry architecture in cinema is an informative reference for anyone interested in how architecture is featured in the cinematic medium scholars of architecture urban planning fine arts humanities social sciences and
